Terms & Conditions

Dorset County Council hosts the Dorset Coast Forum, the producers of iCoast, and acts as the accountable body.

1. It is your responsibility to check the information you supply for your advertisement is correct.
2. Dorset County Council reserves the right at any time to edit or alter the design, presentation, content and functionality of the website and advertiser pages/banners as necessary and without notice.
3. Advertisements will be allocated on a strictly first come, first served basis.
4. Bookings will only be considered by Dorset County Council once an official booking form has been completed and signed by the registered owner or authorised signatory of the business being advertised.
5. Advertising will commence on the first working day of the month and end on the last working day of the month.
6. All advertisements must be booked and paid for at least 5 working days before the commencement of your advertisement period.
7. You will need to supply your own designed banner advertisement. This must be received by the Dorset County Council at least 5 working days before the commencement of your banner advertisement period.
8. In the event that the deadlines are met by you but the advertisement does not appear on the website on the first working day of the month in which you are advertising, you will be refunded on a pro rata basis for any days on which your advertisement should have been displayed.
9. Upon receipt of the booking form you are committed to the advertisement indicated.
10. Once the advertisement is loaded onto www.icoast.co.uk you may request a maximum of one amendment to the advertisement per month. Any changes made will be at the discretion of the Dorset County Council.
11. Dorset County Council shall be entitled, at our discretion, to alter and edit the presentation of the content of advertisements. You will be informed of any changes made.
12. Dorset County Council reserve the right to refuse the advertising if it is counter to their general aims and principles or it is otherwise deemed to be inappropriate for any reason, at its absolute discretion.
13. Dorset County Council reserve the right to refuse or terminate the advertising contract and remove the advertisement from www.icoast.co.uk if, in our reasonable opinion, your conduct, the content or design of your advertisement or destination website has or would cause offence or has brought or would bring us or any other party into disrepute if we continued to provide the advertising services.
14. Dorset County Council reserves the right to refuse an advertisement if the quality of the advert or image therein is not in keeping with the quality of the design of the icoast.co.uk website.
15. You acknowledge and accept that computer and telecommunications systems are not fault free and may from time to time require periods of downtime (being periods during which the icoast.co.uk website is not available to consumers) for the purpose of repair, maintenance and upgrading. Accordingly, we do not guarantee uninterrupted availability of the icoast.co.uk website. You accept that you shall have no claim for breach of contract or otherwise in respect of any such period of unavailability.
16. Data protection: The information supplied on this form will be held on a computerised database or on paper by Dorset County Council and will only be used by the council or by project partnerships in which the council is involved to generate trade for your business or to keep you informed of new developments.
17. Dorset County Council is committed to promoting equality of opportunity for all the community and expects its partners to support this aim.
18. The placement of an order for inclusion of an advertisement shall amount to acceptance of these conditions.
19. Dorset County Council accepts no liability for any loss or damage arising out of or in connection with any advertisement appearing on its website.
